

Financial Aid Eligibility and Programs

Brown Mackie College — North Canton is committed to helping you reach your career goals, and we know that paying for an education can be difficult. We're here to help. Our Student Financial Services Office will work with you to determine how much of the cost of your education should be financed by you, and how much may be paid for using aid programs.

At the College, financial aid eligibility is based on:

- Education costs, including tuition, fees, and supplies
- Available resources, including scholarships, federal and state grants, federal loan programs, private loans, Veterans Administration benefits, and Work-Study programs

These available resources are subtracted from the education costs, resulting in the amount that may be covered through financial aid.

When you apply for financial aid, you are required to provide detailed financial information. Brown Mackie College — North Canton holds all financial information you entrust to us in strictest confidence, and we are bound by the provisions of the Family Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, which regulates the release of any personal information.

This grant is for Pell Grant recipients who are U.S. citizens. The federal government pays interest on the subsidized loan until repayment begins and during authorized periods of deferment. An unsubsidized loan is not awarded on the basis of need. The borrower is charged interest from the time the loan is disbursed until it is paid in full. The borrower can allow the interest to accumulate, that is, the interest will be added to the principal amount of the loan and will increase the amount the borrower

Federal Work-Study Program

The Federal Work-Study Program (FWSP) provides employment for students who demonstrate financial need and who must earn a part of their educational expenses. The program encourages community service work and work related to a student's program of study. FWSP employment is arranged with public or private non-profit agencies off college premises, and the work performed must be in the public interest. FWSP employment may also be arranged at the College under certain conditions. ## Step 1: How to apply for financial aid

It's important that you contact our Student Financial Services Office for the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form*. This is the standard document used to determine eligibility for federal student aid including grant and loan programs, Work-Study, and some state student assistance programs. Contact us if you have questions about filling out the FAFSA.

To receive aid from federal student aid programs, you must meet specific program eligibility requirements and:

- Have earned a High School diploma or GED
- Demonstrate financial need, except for some loan programs
- Not be in default on a prior educational loan, or owe repayment on a prior grant
- Meet the College's admissions criteria
- Be enrolled or accepted for enrollment as a student working toward a degree, diploma, or certificate in an eligible program
- Be a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen
- Have a valid Social Security Number
- Make satisfactory academic progress
- Sign a statement of educational purpose and a certification statement on overpayment and default, both found in the FAFSA

You do not need to include parental financial information if you are over 24 years old, a veteran, a ward of the court, an orphan, married, or supporting legal dependents other than a spouse.

Remember to sign the form when it's complete. A parent must also sign if he or she contributed information to the form. If applying online, you may create and use a personal identification number (PIN) at www.pin.ed.gov to "e-sign" the form.

Step 2: When to apply

Apply for financial aid as soon as you enroll at Brown Mackie College. If all of your aid applications and forms have been properly submitted, we can credit any anticipated aid to your student account. This allows you to defer costs covered by financial aid until the aid is received. You must re-establish financial aid eligibility (and re-apply) every year. Application deadlines are posted in various locations around the school campus.

Financial aid payments are usually made in equal installments for each term in each academic year, according to your enrollment. Terms and conditions vary for each loan program.

Step 3: Maintaining eligibility

When you accept financial aid, you agree to specific responsibilities and retain certain rights, including:

- Taking the full load of classes scheduled for you
- Keeping copies of tax returns and other records
- Maintaining satisfactory academic progress toward your educational goal
- Notifying the Student Financial Services Department if you receive any financial assistance that was not previously reported
- Being aware that financial aid assistance is subject to final funding authorization established by the U.S. Congress and state legislatures
- Reapplying on time and accurately
- Understanding that regulatory changes may bring about new rules and eligibility which could change your awards
- Non-compliance with these responsibilities may jeopardize your eligibility to receive financial aid.
- Should you withdraw from school with the intention of returning, you must notify the Student Financial Services Department in order to request financial assistance for future terms.
